

Update Jaeni Furaha Mhema August 2023

First of all I would like to thank God for hiring me for this position, I am getting happier and more grateful to see that I am being given a great opportunity to be able to fight to achieve my dreams and during the period that I am in college I have learned many things and I continue to learn, in the profession I always struggle to make sure that I reach my dreams.

I also like to collaborate with my colleagues to be able to go further in the academic matter, I also prefer when I have the opportunity to volunteer in various institutions to collaborate in different jobs to build my ability to work more.

I also like to involve in various sports such as netball and sports. Others are people who like to mingle and share different things on their own or in groups to be able to build mental and health capacity for the environment around me and different places as well.

I thank you so much again for considering me and see me that I deserve worth of Education. from the bottom of my heart I give deepest appreciation to the iSTEPup foundation thank you.
